Dear Neal:

The revised invoice and exhibits are submitted herewith. The invoice shows the rental car, parking, and tolls under Transportation. The prior invoice included these in the Hotel and Expenses category. Therefore the Hotel and Expenses category only has the hotel bill and the meals which I purchased.

Please note that the exhibit entitled Remaining Securities is changed in two areas. (1) The distributions for the PB Government Plus Fund, which has been changed to the Pru-Bache U.S. Government Fund, total $1,598. (2) The Summary section reflects the residual values which are inserted in a new column. (3) The residual value of the PB Energy Growth Fund are reduced from $3,000 to $750 as a result of a price I received today from Stanger's Partnership Watch, May 1991, page 21.

I enjoyed observing your masterful work. These defense attorneys are something else, though.

Best Regards,

B

Dear Neal:

Just a brief note at this time to tell you how much I enjoyed working with you on the C Arbitration. You were well prepared, logical in your presentation, easy to work with, and gave me a solid view of what you wished me to cover.

There have been times when I have felt that my counsel was working for the other side, by the lack of those attributes that I describe above.

Please let me know of the panel's decision, when you receive it. I look forward to working with you in the future.

Yours truly,

Editor

Dear Neal:

Thank you for copying me on your letter to [redacted]. Your comments are precisely the kind of commentary I was trying to encourage in my talk at the Conference -- no "cc's" to Congress, just open discussion of some personal experiences, with an appropriate balance and comparison of procedures among the forums, and constructive suggestions for change.

You may not get your name in the papers, but I congratulate you on trying to contribute to the best efforts towards constructive change in the process. Let's stay in touch.

Sincerely,
