Re: _____ ation

Dear Neal:

Thanks for sending me your brief on the _____ matter. I found it very persuasive and indeed compelling. Certainly you will win this case on appeal.

I will keep your brief as authority for this argument when it comes up in my motions.

Wish you were still here.

Very truly yours,

Re: _____

Dear Neal:

Although I have hopefully said so before, I wanted to follow up once again to thank you for your assistance in connection with the above case. Mrs. [redacted] and I are pleased with the decision rendered by the arbitration panel in her favor, and that decision was no doubt influenced by your input and assistance.

If I can return the favor in the future, please let me know. Thanks again, and best regards.

Cordially,

Dear Neal:

I enjoyed your article in this month's Florida Bar Journal. Sorry to have caused so much commotion with the Vernon case, but hopefully the well reasoned Victor decision will eventually be the undisputed law in the State of Florida on this issue.

Hope everything is going well for you guys in Orlando, and if we can ever be of assistance to you in the southern part of the state please do not hesitate to give us a ring. Give Bob my regards.

Very truly yours,

Re: Economic Loss Doctrine Seminar
B&A File No.: 500-008

Dear Neal:

I enjoyed your presentation concerning the Economic Loss Doctrine in Florida. As I stated in our last conversation, monitoring the court "trends" in the law concerning the Economic Loss Doctrine is of extreme importance to our practice--construction/commercial law. I would appreciate it if you would from time to time contact me concerning any new cases on this matter that you feel that may be of interest to me. I will be more than happy to return the favor. The case that I was referring to in our last conversation was The Sandarac Association, Inc. v. W.R. Frizzell Architects, Inc., 17 FLW D2790 (2nd DCA).

Thank you for your time and consideration. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to so advise.

Very truly yours,

Re: Prudential Securities, Inc. Litigation

Dear Mr. Blaher:

I would like to thank you for taking the time to answer my questions regarding your work in the Prudential Securities, Inc. litigation and arbitration. Your comments were very helpful in preparing for our arbitration with, among others, Prudential.

One of my office has indicated he will probably attend the PIABA conference in Arizona this fall. Thank you for telling us about this event. Wish me luck in trying to convince him to take me along.

Thank you again and good luck fighting Prudential.

Very truly yours,

Dear Neal,

I hope that you had an enjoyable vacation. Thank you very much for meeting with me to discuss my career change. I appreciated your reasoned advice to both finding a new job and building a practice.

I look forward to seeing you again and I will keep you posted as things develop.

Thanks Again, Best Wishes,

Insider Trading Experts

Dear Neal:

It was good speaking with you on the telephone.

Neal, I appreciate your forwarding the resumes of the three (3) individuals who might be helpful to my client. I am going to meet with my client and discuss the possibility of utilizing one of these experts.

Very truly yours,
